Dear Mr. Donnelly:

This letter will confirm a telephone conversation between Richard Kerr, previous Deputy Director for Administration, and James B. Stewart, Acting Deputy Assistant Commissioner, Real Property Management and Safety, Public Buildings Service, concerning security issues raised by Senator Paul S. Sarbanes in his April 10, 1986, correspondence to the General Services Administration (copy enclosed).

As agreed with Mr. Kerr, since security arrangements at the locations in question are directed by the Central Intelligence Agency, you would be in the best position to respond to the Senator's concerns on this matter.

Your cooperation is appreciated.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Terence C. Golden".

Paul Sarbanes
